ABOUT THIS BOOK

This document is an Easy Read version of MOIRA's full Privacy Statement.

This book has some hard words.

The first time we write hard words:

- The words are in blue
- We will write what the hard words mean

This document is about how we:

- Manage your personal information
- Respect your privacy rights

Personal information is anything that you tell MOIRA about yourself. This includes your

- Name
- Telephone number
- Address

Privacy is your right to keep personal information secret.

Rights are all things that you can get, have and do as a person.

YOUR RIGHTS

As a MOIRA client you have the right to know:

- Why we collect your personal information

- What personal information we keep about you and to correct this information if it is wrong

- How we use that personal information

- Who we share that personal information with

WHAT INFORMATION WE COLLECT

We will only collect personal information we need to provide you with our services, including to help us work out which MOIRA services may be useful for you.

This may include personal information such as your:

- Name and contact details
- Health
- Race
- Religion
- Information about your views and interactions of online applications, websites and ads

HOW WE GET YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

- In person

- By telephone

- By mail

- By email and our website

WHY WE COLLECT PERSONAL INFORMATION

We collect and use your personal information to:

- Provide services that meet your needs

- Improve our services

- Keep you safe

- Work with other service providers to best support you

Service providers are the people you use to help you.

- Meet MOIRA's obligations to government authorities

MOIRA's obligations are the things that we must legally do.

If you do not want to share your personal information we will listen to your request.

If you do not give us your personal information this may stop us from being able to:

- Provide services to you
- Tell you about important MOIRA updates
- Respond to your inquiry or request quickly

When you give us your personal information you may receive updates on other MOIRA services we think you may like.

We may contact you by:

- Mail
- Telephone
- Text message
- Email

You can ask to stop MOIRA updates at any time by contacting us.

SHARING YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

We may share some of your personal information with:

- third parties such as service providers, for example payment verification services

- National Disability Insurance Agency (NDIA)

- Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS)

- Other places as requested for legal reasons and your safety including the police

SECURITY

Your personal information is protected by Australian law.

We will make sure that your personal information is kept private.

When information is private it is not shared with anyone that should not be able to see it.

Only MOIRA team members and people we allow will see your personal information.

We will only keep your information for as long as we need it and no longer than is legally required.

If you wish to have your personal information deleted you may make a request in writing.

If the personal information we have is wrong you can ask us to fix this.

If there is a data breach we will:

- Not share any more information

- Find out what went wrong

A data breach means your information has been shared with people who were not meant to see it.

If the data breach is serious MOIRA is required to:

- Contact the Australian Information Commissioner

- Make changes so the same thing does not happen again
